Qualified Foreign Investor- New Investment Route

August 2012

Qualified Foreign Investor or QFI: A person or a trust resident in a Country which is a member of Financial Action Task Force (FATF) and they can invest directly in India.

Investment Regime: QFI's have been permitted to invest in all the three segments of the Indian Capital Market namely- mutual funds, equity and corporate debt.

Recently Kotak Mahindra Bank has concluded the deal worth US$ 5 million for a US based QFI through the new QFI Investment Route & it is expected to attract investment worth US$ 30 billion in 2012-13. In the recent past, Government of India had conducted road shows in five countries in the Gulf region- Riyadh, Dubai, Muscat, Kuwait & Bahrain to project India as the incredible investment destination for wealthy investors.
